

Local Retail Store Helps Find Homes for Rescued Cats

The Animal Rescue Foundation partners with Buzzy's Bow Wow Meow in Narberth

(MEDIA) April 20, 2007 – The Animal Rescue Foundation of Southeastern PA (ARF SEPA) is partnering with Buzzy's Bow Wow Meow, opening on Wednesday, April 25th in Narberth, PA to provide retail space showcasing homeless cats up for adoption through ARF.

Up to ten cats available for adoption will be housed in display windows at the store where folks can see them jump and play freely, unlike if they were caged. They will live there and be cared for by ARF volunteers and Buzzy's until a homes are found.

"Our volunteers rescue cats from public shelters that must euthanize when full," says ARF's director, Jennifer Coccodrilli. "We then place them in foster homes until forever homes are found. An opportunity to have a place like Buzzy's to showcase ten cats at a time allows us to rescue that many more cats from the shelter – we're extremely grateful to them, as are the cats!"

Buzzy's Bow Wow Meow is located at 701 Montgomery Avenue in Narberth, PA. This state-of-the-art pet center has a vast array of pet supplies under one beautiful roof. There's even a mini-dog park, outdoor tables to relax, a grooming salon and much more. For directions to Buzzys and more information, visit www.arfsepa.com or call ARF at 610.994.4300.
