

Oh, Cats!

Animal Rescue Foundation hosts "Kitty Fest" adoption fair at Media pet boutique

(MEDIA) October 5, 2007 – The Animal Rescue Foundation of Southeastern PA (ARF SEPA) is partnering with Four Paws Shoppe in Media for a special ARF Adoption Fair, "Kitty Fest," on Saturday, October 13th from 12:00 noon – 3:00 pm.

Many cats available for adoption will there at the event. The owner of Four Paws Shoppe, Melissa Prorock, is even fostering some homeless cats herself. A mother cat and her kittens were brought into the Delaware County SPCA and Melissa took them home to foster them until 'forever homes' can be found. They'll be featured at the event as well.

ARF SEPA is an all-volunteer organization that utilizes a network of foster homes to house pets – dogs, cats and bunnies - instead of operating a traditional shelter. Four Paws Shoppe is a unique pet store in Media that features a wide array of all natural products and gifts for pets.

"Our volunteers rescue pets directly from public shelters that must euthanize when full," says ARF SEPA director Jennifer Coccodrilli. "An opportunity to have Kitty Fest is very important because so many cats and kittens are abandoned at local shelters all year long."

She added, "The opportunity to showcase these cats at Four Paws Shoppe makes it easier for people to meet them and get them adopted quickly into forever homes. In turn, we can rescue that many more cats out of the shelter."
